Origin Story

Find the personal conviction behind your Chabad house.

Name: _____ Chabad house: _____

SPEAK WITH A PARTNER, THEN WRITE

Say it to a partner first. Then write one or two sentences in each box. Use a specific moment you can picture.

1 HUMANIZE

What drew you to this community, and what mattered to you personally?

2 ANCHOR

Recall one real moment that shaped your conviction. Who was there, what happened, and what did you notice?

3 BRIDGE

What did that moment teach you about what your Chabad house exists to make possible?

READ YOUR THREE ANSWERS TOGETHER

They form your origin story: what brought you here, what shaped your conviction, and why the work matters. Underline words that express a value.

WORDS TO CARRY FORWARD

Write up to three words or short phrases to bring to Worksheet 3.

Partner check: Which specific moment did you hear? Which value came through most clearly?

Magnetic Mission, Chapter 3.

Closure Test

If your Chabad house disappeared tomorrow, who would lose what?

Name: _____ Chabad house: _____

SPEAK WITH A PARTNER, THEN WRITE

Talk it through with a partner before writing. Keep the answers concrete and honest about other resources in your community.

1 WHO WOULD LOSE SOMETHING

Name specific people or groups who rely on your Chabad house.

2 WHAT WOULD THEY LOSE

What experience, relationship, support, or opportunity would disappear for them?

3 WHAT WOULD REMAIN UNMET

What could other local resources cover? Which part of the gap would still remain?

4 WHAT DOES THAT REVEAL

What does this loss reveal about why your Chabad house exists?

WORDS TO CARRY FORWARD

Circle or write the values that recur in your answers.

PARTNER CHECK

Can you name who loses something and what changes in their life? Ask one follow-up wherever the answer is still broad.

Magnetic Mission, Chapter 11.

Program Word Cloud

Find the recurring reasons behind the work you already do.

Name: _____ Chabad house: _____

LIST PROGRAMS · INTERVIEW YOUR PARTNER · FIND THE THEMES

List 8-12 programs. Interview each other and record reason words. Find groups.
Go to the next page to name priorities.

BRING THE THREE EXERCISES TOGETHER

Compare these groups with the value words from Worksheets 1 and 2. Refine the groups, then write your three priorities on the next page.

Magnetic Mission, Chapter 11.

Your Three Priorities

Priorities guide engagement. Annual gifts support the whole Chabad house.

Name three priorities; complete and check at least one card. Finish the other cards after the Kinus.

PRIORITY 1 Name: _____

VALUE BEHIND IT

_____

WHO BENEFITS AND WHAT CHANGES

_____

SUPPORTING PROGRAMS

_____

HOW I WOULD EXPLAIN IT TO A DONOR

_____

PRIORITY 2 Name: _____

VALUE BEHIND IT

_____

HOW I WOULD EXPLAIN IT TO A DONOR

_____

PRIORITY 3 Name: _____

VALUE BEHIND IT

_____

WHO BENEFITS AND WHAT CHANGES

_____

_____

HOW I WOULD EXPLAIN IT TO A DONOR

_____

CHECK WITH A PARTNER

Are the priorities distinct? Can you point to real programs for each? Could a donor recognize something they care about? Revise any wording that stays vague.

My Calendar Inventory

Inventory what you already do. Priority tags guide engagement, not restricted gifts.

Name: _____ Chabad house: _____ Planning year: _____

LIST BY MONTH OR SEASON · TAG EACH ASSET

Use English months, Hebrew months, or seasons. Draw a heavier line when the period changes. Use extra copies freely.

P1: _____ P2: _____ P3: _____

MONTH / SEASON	ASSET / TOUCHPOINT	P1	P2	P3	GENERAL

An asset may be a program, visit, story, photo, or reflection. Tick P1, P2, P3 or General; tick multiple priorities only when each fit is real.

Magnetic Mission, Chapter 11.

My Calendar Inventory - continued

Keep moving through the year. Add as many assets as each month or season needs.

Name: _____ Chabad house: _____ Planning year: _____

LIST BY MONTH OR SEASON · TAG EACH ASSET

Use English months, Hebrew months, or seasons. Draw a heavier line when the period changes. Use extra copies freely.

P1: _____ P2: _____ P3: _____

MONTH / SEASON	ASSET / TOUCHPOINT	P1	P2	P3	GENERAL

An asset may be a program, visit, story, photo, or reflection. Tick P1, P2, P3 or General; tick multiple priorities only when each fit is real.

Magnetic Mission, Chapter 11.

Assets by Priority

Group the same assets by priority. Annual gifts support the whole Chabad house.

GROUP BY PRIORITY · CHECK WITH A PARTNER

Copy each asset and its month / season from Worksheet 1 into the matching list. If it fits two priorities, include it in both.

Keep General items. Aim for six useful assets per priority; flag real gaps. Future ideas stay separate.

P1: _____ Asset / when available	P2: _____ Asset / when available	P3: _____ Asset / when available	GENERAL Asset / when available

My Donor Conversation Plan

Prepare a meeting request and two questions for one donor, real or a composite.

Name: _____ Chabad house: _____

CHOOSE A DONOR · PREPARE YOUR REQUEST AND QUESTIONS

A MY DONOR AND THREE THINGS I KNOW

My donor (real or a composite): _____

Use real observations about giving, interests, involvement, or past comments. Mark any assumption.

THREE CLUES ABOUT THIS PERSON	KNOWN OR ASSUMED
1.
2.
3.

B MY REQUEST FOR THE MEETING

Write 2-3 sentences: why this person's perspective matters and a clear request for time. Promise no gift request only if you mean it.

A HESITATION I MAY HEAR	CLARIFY, THEN RESPOND

C MY TWO QUESTIONS

QUESTION	WORDS I COULD ACTUALLY USE
Opening tied to a clue
Possible follow-up

Possible priority to explore: _____ Keep open to another answer.

Let the answer shape your follow-up. Continue to the next page for pair practice.

Magnetic Mission, Chapters 4 and 5.

Practice and Listen

Each person practices the request and the conversation, then revises.

TAKE TURNS · PRACTICE · GIVE FEEDBACK · REVISE

D PAIR PRACTICE

Share your donor and three clues. Your partner plays the donor, raises one hesitation, then responds in character. Complete one round each.

STEP	WHAT TO DO
Step 1	Request the meeting and respond to one hesitation.
Step 2	Follow the answer, reflect it, and ask permission for future updates.
Step 3	Partner gives feedback in the table below.
Step 4	Revise one line, then swap roles.

PARTNER FEEDBACK	WHAT YOU NOTICED
Did the request fit this donor?
Who did most of the talking?
What value or priority emerged? Which words revealed it?
What would improve the conversation?

WHAT IS STILL UNCLEAR	ONE LINE I WILL IMPROVE

KEEP BESIDE YOU

FOLLOW UP What is it about that that matters most to you?
REFLECT It sounds like ___ matters to you. Is that close?
ASK PERMISSION Would you like occasional updates about this?
RESPECT THE ANSWER Honor a clear no and any promise of no gift request.

Practice answers are fictional. They do not confirm facts about a real donor on Worksheet 2.

Magnetic Mission, Chapter 5.

My 12-Month Cultivation Calendar

Use Workshop 2's Assets by Priority to place 4-6 useful touchpoints across each donor's year.

CHOOSE DONORS · MAP TOUCHPOINTS · CHECK WITH A PARTNER

Start with five familiar VIP donors. Optional: add up to two more. Write each donor's priority; add ? to a guess.

Label all 12 months in order, starting this month. Copy exact asset names into useful months within their available period. Use another copy for more names.

Name: _____ Planning year: _____ P1: _____ P2: _____ P3: _____

DONOR NAME	PRIORITY

Partner check: 4-6 distinct touches, priority fit, available months, and spacing. Does each show something this donor cares about? What should you leave out?

Mark unconfirmed fit or timing ?. For either/or dates, mark both ? and count them as ONE touchpoint. Confirm unknown fits in a real conversation. General items may add warmth but do not count toward the 4-6 touches.

Show impact through a visit, video, photo, or update; not every touch needs an invitation. Tailor it 4-6 weeks ahead. Annual gifts support the whole Chabad house.
