THE DESPERATION CYCLE

IT DOESN'T FEEL GOOD.
IT RARELY WORKS.

ALTRUICITY

RAISE YOUR HAND IF...

YOU'VE WALKED OUT OF A DONOR MEETING HAVING DONE 80% OF THE TALKING.

...OR FELT LIKE YOU'RE CHASING DONORS.

ALTRUICITY

THE X FACTOR

WHY ARE SOME CHABAD HOUSES A LIGHTNING ROD FOR GIVING?

~~MORE CHARISMA?~~

~~A BETTER PRODUCT?~~

~~RICHER DONORS?~~

ALTRUICITY

THE ROADMAP

THREE WORKSHOPS. ONE SYSTEM.

YOU ARE HERE

1. YOUR 3 PRIORITIES

The few things everything you do rolls up into.

2. YOUR ASSET BANK

Your calendar, tagged to those priorities.

3. THE CONVERSATION

Ask for it, have it, then plan a year of touches for your top donors.

THEY BUILD ON EACH OTHER. STAY FOR ALL THREE.

ALTRUICITY

WHERE GIVING COMES FROM

IDENTITY → BELIEF → GIVING

WHO DOES THIS DONOR BELIEVE THEY ARE,
AND HOW DOES THIS MOTIVATE THEIR GIVING?

FROM A CATEGORY TO A REASON

WHAT'S BEHIND THE CATEGORY?

WHAT YOU HEAR

"I CARE ABOUT JEWISH EDUCATION."

WHAT IT MIGHT MEAN

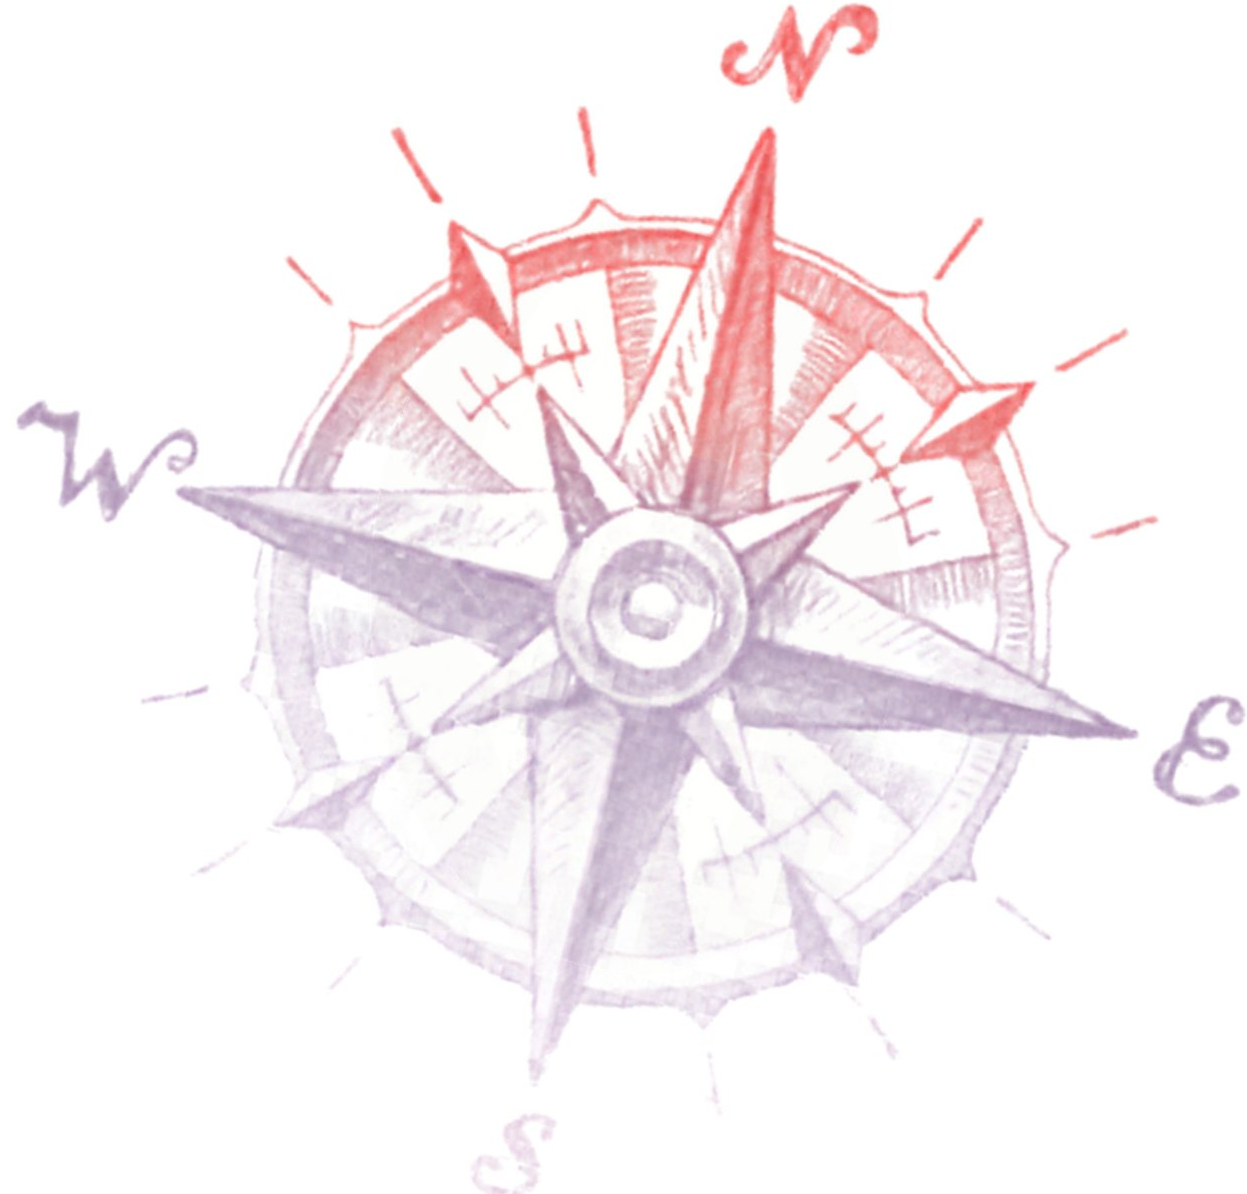

- ACADEMICS?
- MIDDOS?
- ACCESS?
- PRIDE?

ASK: WHAT ABOUT THAT MATTERS TO YOU?

YOUR SHARED NORTH

THREE PRIORITIES A DONOR CAN RECOGNIZE AND SHARE.

THEY GUIDE WHAT YOU SHOW. ANNUAL GIFTS STILL SUPPORT THE WHOLE CHABAD HOUSE.

ALTRUICITY

HOW YOU'LL FIND YOURS

THREE EXERCISES

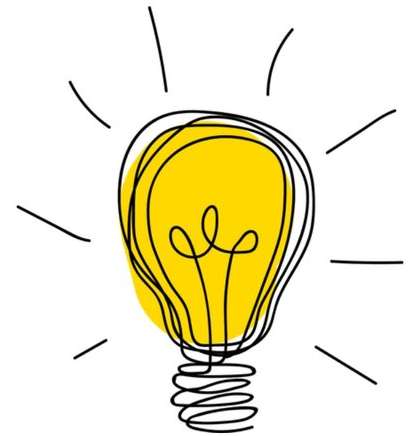

1 ORIGIN STORY

Why you started, in this community.

2 CLOSURE TEST

If it closed tomorrow, who would lose what?

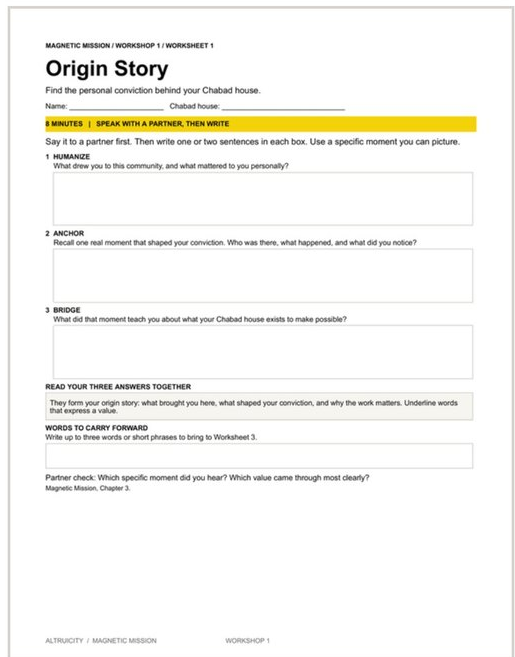

3 PROGRAM WORD CLOUD

Your programs, and the reasons that keep repeating.

THE FIRST TWO WARM YOU UP. THE THIRD IS WHERE YOUR PRIORITIES APPEAR.

YOUR WORKSHEETS

WHAT YOU'LL FILL IN

MAGNETIC MISSION / WORKSHOP 1 / WORKSHEET 1

Origin Story

Find the personal conviction behind your Chabad house.

Name: _____ Chabad house: _____

8 MINUTES | SPEAK WITH A PARTNER, THEN WRITE

Say it to a partner first. Then write one or two sentences in each box. Use a specific moment you can picture.

1 HUMANIZE
What drew you to this community, and what mattered to you personally?

2 ANCHOR
Recall one real moment that shaped your conviction. Who was there, what happened, and what did you notice?

3 BRIDGE
What did that moment teach you about what your Chabad house exists to make possible?

READ YOUR THREE ANSWERS TOGETHER

They form your origin story: what brought you here, what shaped your conviction, and why the work matters. Underline words that express a value.

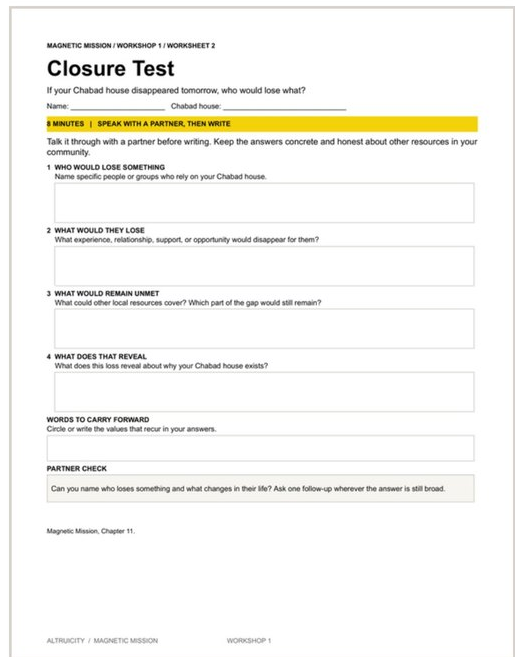

WORDS TO CARRY FORWARD
Write up to three words or short phrases to bring to Worksheet 3.

Partner check: Which specific moment did you hear? Which value came through most clearly?

ORIGIN STORY

MAGNETIC MISSION / WORKSHOP 1 / WORKSHEET 2

Closure Test

If your Chabad house disappeared tomorrow, who would lose what?

Name: _____ Chabad house: _____

8 MINUTES | SPEAK WITH A PARTNER, THEN WRITE

Talk it through with a partner before writing. Keep the answers concrete and honest about other resources in your community.

1 WHO WOULD LOSE SOMETHING
Name specific people or groups who rely on your Chabad house.

2 WHAT WOULD THEY LOSE
What experience, relationship, support, or opportunity would disappear for them?

3 WHAT WOULD REMAIN UNMET
What could other local resources cover? Which part of the gap would still remain?

4 WHAT DOES THAT REVEAL
What does this loss reveal about why your Chabad house exists?

Circle or write the values that recur in your answers.

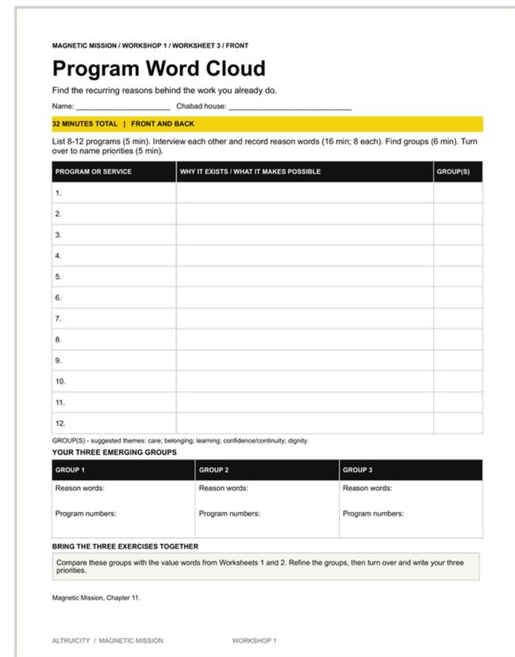

PARTNER CHECK

Can you name who loses something and what changes in their life? Ask one follow-up wherever the answer is still broad.

FICTIONAL EXAMPLE

ORIGIN STORY

1 HUMANIZE

What drew you to this community, and what mattered to you personally?

When we began building Chabad of Cedar Grove, we kept meeting Jewish families who wanted a connection but felt unsure where they belonged.

2 ANCHOR

Recall one real moment that shaped your conviction. Who was there, what happened, and what did you notice?

At a Shabbos meal, a new guest waited outside until someone reassured him that he did not need to know the prayers. After dinner, he asked whether he could bring his children next time.

3 BRIDGE

What did that moment teach you about what your Chabad house exists to make possible?

That moment convinced me that Jewish life has to feel like a place people can enter, grow in, and turn to when they need someone.

READ YOUR THREE ANSWERS TOGETHER

They form your origin story: what brought you here, what shaped your conviction, and why the work matters. Underline words that express a value.

FICTIONAL EXAMPLE

CLOSURE TEST

1 WHO WOULD LOSE SOMETHING
Name specific people or groups who rely on your Chabad house.

Families new to the area; parents looking for a welcoming way into Jewish life; children building Jewish memories; older neighbors and families facing illness.

What experience, relationship, support, or opportunity would disappear for them?

A familiar place to belong, approachable Jewish learning for their children, and a person who notices when they need company or practical help.

3 WHAT WOULD REMAIN UNMET
What could other local resources cover? Which part of the gap would still remain?

Other organizations offer services and classes. Some families would still need a personal welcome, an easy first step, and someone who visits or checks in when they cannot come to a program.

4 WHAT DOES THAT REVEAL
What does this loss reveal about why your Chabad house exists?

Our work makes Jewish community accessible, helps families carry Jewish life forward, and provides care that reaches people where they are.

Circle or write the values that recur in your answers.

Belonging; Jewish continuity; care; dignity.
